Ahmedabad, [17th September 2011] – The Singapore-based Global Schools Foundation (GSF) that owns and operates schools - Global Indian International School (“GIIS”) and Global School of Silicon Valley (“GSSV”), today announced a US$150 million expansion plan to set up 50 new international schools in South East Asia, Middle East, India, Korea and China.

India stands as the primary focus where the GSF will be building and operating new schools across 12 destinations nationwide; the first phase of this expansion begins in Bangalore, Ahmedabad, Surat, Indore and Noida. These new schools will be open for admissions for the Academic Year 2012-13. .

The International Advisory and Governing Board of GSF comprises of outstanding global leaders from diverse fields like Mr. N.R. Narayana Murty- Chief Mentor of Infosys Technologies, Dr. Karan Singh- former Central Cabinet Minister in India, Prof. M.G.K. Menon- President, Global Indian Foundation, Ms. Shabana Azmi- Actress & Social activist among others.

Speaking on India plans Mr. Atul Temurnikar Co-founder & Chairman- GSF stated, “Our GEEM or Global Education Excellence Model, that nurtures global leaders and role models, has become a radical idea in the K-12 education sector. Our experienced teaching faculty and portfolio of 6 different curricula will offer valuable global exposure and opportunities to students and nurture them for global challenges. Our academic achievements and awards are a testimonial to our commitment in education excellence.”

“The Foundation has always promoted Asian culture through its Asia-based schools, and champions its integration efforts through numerous local community engagement programmes. This is evident from the fact that GIIS was featured in the Singapore Ministry of Education’s publication on Best Practices in Integration”, said Prof MGK Menon, President, Global Schools Foundation.

Global School Foundation (GSF), now in its tenth year aspires to ensure easy-access to quality and holistic education in every country worldwide. They are Asia's leading award winning School with a Global reach - offering Kindergarten to Standard 12 education. GSI brings to India the combination of Indian ethos and education along with the most innovative academic and technology-based practices in education from countries abroad. The school offers education in 6 curriculums, namely – CBSE, American System, ICSE, Montessori (London), IGCSE Cambridge (UK) and International Baccalaureate IBO (Geneva) curriculum.

The GSF is currently in discussion with the International Finance Corporation (IFC) of the World Bank Group to secure funding for expansion into countries like Indonesia, Malaysia, Vietnam, India and China.

Having entered their 10th year of operation, Global Schools Foundation have been delivering world-class education and have produced world toppers in International Baccalaureate (IB) and the 5th world ranker in Central Board of Secondary Education (India).
